Professor: Rev. Thomas G. Guarino, S.T.D.

Course Description: A systematic and historical examination of the doctrine of the Triune God: dialectical nature of God as both hidden and revealed, immanent and transcendent; attributes and perfections of God; Patristic and Conciliar debates about the nature of the Trinity; persons, processions, relations and missions within the Godhead; speculation in relation to the “economic” and “immanent” Trinity, as well as contemporary retrievals of psychological analogies.

Reverend Thomas G. Guarino, S.T.D. Professor of Systematic Theology, earned a B.A. at Seton Hall University, an S.T.B. from Rome’s Gregorian University and an S.T.L. and an S.T.D. from the Catholic University of America. He is the author of several books including, most recently, Vincent of Lérins and the Development of Christian Doctrine (Baker Publishing Group, April 2013). He has published scores of articles and reviews in theological and philosophical journals in North America and Europe. For the last decade, he has been a member of the bilateral ecumenical initiative, Evangelicals and Catholics Together. And, in 2003, he was named a fellow of the Center of Theological Inquiry in Princeton, N.J.
