WELCOME TO SETON HALL UNIVERSITY!

SPRING ORIENTATION 2010
FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 2010
10 A.M. - 1:00 P.M.
Arts and Sciences Hall, Room 208, 2nd floor
Brunch and refreshments will be served

Important Notice:
This orientation is mandatory for all new International Students!

All new undergraduates (both freshman and transfer students), Graduate students, ESL and Exchange students are required to attend the International Student Orientation.

The US Department of Homeland Security requires student visa holders to register with Seton Hall University prior to beginning your academic program in the United States. In order to assist you in complying with this requirement, the Office of International Programs (OIP) has prepared a Mandatory Orientation. Although you will be invited or required to attend a variety of orientation programs, the OIP Mandatory Orientation is designed specifically to address the needs of international students.

You must bring both the originals and photocopies of the following documents:
- I-20 (for F-1 visa holders) or DS-2019 (for J-1 visa holders)
- Passport with visa stamp
- I-94 card
- Updated contact information (local address, telephone number, email etc.)

PLEASE BE ON TIME AND DON’T FORGET TO BRING YOUR DOCUMENTS!

WE LOOK FORWARD TO MEETING YOU!
