1. The Pocher Scholarship is established by the family and friends of John Pocher, a graduate of the Stillman School of Business (BSB, 1988). Mr. Pocher died on September 11, 2001, when terrorists attacked the World Trade Center. Eligible students can compete for a one-time scholarship of $5,000. This scholarship will be granted over a period of two semesters. In the first semester the recipient will receive an award of $2,500. Upon maintenance of the appropriate grade point average (2.5), the student will then be granted the second half of the award for the following academic semester.

2. All students who are regularly admitted undergraduate students of the Stillman School of Business are eligible to apply for this scholarship. The other eligibility requirements are as follow:

   • The applicant must be a citizen of the United States.

   • The student applicant must have already accumulated as of January 1, 2010, between 30 and 100 credits toward their degree at Seton Hall University.

   • The applicant must have a minimum grade point average of 2.5.

3. Students must complete the attached application form in order to receive consideration for the award.

4. All applications must be received by Friday, February 5, 2010 at 4:00 p.m.
